Welcome

The Ice Cream Shoppe is an original customized designer shoe store. The shoes are uniquely themed and flavored around what everyone loves... ice cream!

This line of merchandise is exclusive to the Alice Is Awake brand, you won't be able to find these designer shoes anywhere else!

Our team got accepted in a manufacturing program that is limited only to a few selected applicants.

Our manufacturer is located in Le Marche, Italy which is commonly called "The Shoe Valley".

The Shoe Valley has been the design, marketing, invention and production core of the most important fashion brands like Gucci, Prada, Tod's, Chanel, Fendi to name a few, as well as many new upcoming independent brands.

It is here that the shoes are handcrafted by a network of selected Italian artisans using high quality materials such as pristine Italian leather, suede, organic canvas, limited edition textiles & cruelty free vegan leathers.
